PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Marketing & Communications Lead | FeelText, Ireland

September 2025 – June 2026

- Wrote the marketing and go-to-market (GTM) strategy covering brand positioning, messaging, target segments and channel plan, approved by leadership and adopted as the operating reference for the business.
- Built buyer, investor and KOL personas from market research and stakeholder interviews, and ran competitor benchmarking that surfaced three positioning gaps, shaping campaign messaging and content strategy.
- Grew impressions 1,900%, followers 40% and digital engagement 200% in nine months through integrated B2B demand generation, organic social and content marketing campaigns.
- Set up YouTube, Google Business Profile, LinkedIn, Google Analytics 4 (GA4) and Google Tag Manager (GTM) as the channel and measurement infrastructure, enabling campaign attribution, KPI tracking and performance reporting across the funnel.
- Filmed and edited a 15-episode short-form video series in DaVinci Resolve, adopted by the commercial team as an ongoing client-facing sales enablement asset, 1,000+ partner views.
- Contributed to a brand refresh, applying updated tone of voice, visual identity and brand guidelines across digital, print and event collateral in Adobe InDesign, Affinity Designer and Canva to hold brand consistency across every customer touchpoint.
- Built six WordPress and Elementor pages including the homepage, jobs and testimonials pages, improving lead capture and content discoverability and saving €3,000 in external development costs.
- Delivered the event marketing programme for the EWMA International Bandaging Competition in Vienna: exhibition stand design, competition posters, bilingual English and German campaign assets, on-site logistics and partner coordination, with 20+ qualified leads tracked from stand to follow-up in HubSpot CRM.
- Sourced and managed external video contractors through Upwork, introduced written supplier contracts with delivery milestones, procured production equipment within budget with no overruns, and resolved a commercial dispute with a vendor.
- Presented a six-month digital marketing performance report with competitor benchmarking at leadership level, turning campaign data into agreed planning priorities.

Founder & Marketing Lead | Athlone's Finest Events, Ireland

May 2023 – Present

- Delivered 467% return on ad spend (ROAS) at €8.13 cost per qualified lead (CPL) and a 4.1 CAC to customer lifetime value (CLTV) ratio on the most recent paid social campaign in Meta Ads Manager, across 150,000+ paid views.
- Run creative testing against hook rate and engagement data, reallocating budget mid-campaign from polished promotional creative to found match footage and improving return doing it.
- Grew organic to 36,000+ monthly impressions and doubled followers on a cross-platform content calendar across TikTok, Instagram and Facebook, with community management and audience engagement handled daily.

- Sponsorship and commercial partnerships
- Supplier sourcing, contracts, budget management

INTERESTS

Football, fitness, comedy

- Produce social-first content end to end: short-form video, Reels, on-camera pieces, promotional posters, campaign copywriting and AI-generated video built with Google Veo and Higgsfield, reaching 40,000+ campaign views.
- Secure commercial sponsorships and brand partnerships by presenting audience data against each partner's objectives, then negotiating terms and managing the relationship through delivery.
- Deliver live event activations end to end: budgets, suppliers, timelines, venue and on-site event logistics for consumer sports tournaments, with no budget overruns.
- Built athlonesfinest.com in Claude Code and implemented Google Analytics 4 and Google Tag Manager, tracking traffic, conversion and campaign performance across paid and organic channels.

Senior Sales Assistant | Circle K, Ireland

2022 – 2024

- Achieved a 29% upsell conversion rate against a 16% store average by reading what the customer needed before recommending anything.
- Handled trading operations, merchandising and in-store brand presentation during peak trade across two locations.

SELECTED PROJECTS

Go-to-Market, Positioning & Lifecycle Strategy | All About Kombucha

MSc project

- Diagnosed weak consumer understanding, not distribution, as the real growth constraint across 400+ retail outlets, then repositioned the brand from a niche health product to an everyday wellness drink.
- Built an integrated go-to-market plan across SEO, content marketing, website, event marketing and creator partnerships, with lifecycle communications connecting acquisition, conversion and retention.
- Designed a subscription model around customer lifetime value with CRM-led journeys and presented a phased roadmap to double subscription sales within six months.

Commercial Analytics & CRO | Google Merchandise Store

MSc project

- Analysed GA4 data across 61,000+ users and found desktop and mobile traffic near identical (50.6% against 48.6%) while desktop drove 95.4% of revenue.
- Used funnel analysis to pinpoint 70.3% mobile checkout abandonment and a 22% against 59% engagement gap.
- Recommended checkout simplification, guest checkout, mobile payment options and CRM-led retention, delivered as a prioritised roadmap for revenue growth.
